USD JAZZ CONCERT JULY 24

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dick Braun's Big Band will present a free jazz concert at the University of San Diego July 24 at 7 p.m. The concert will be held in USD's Camino Theatre and is open to the public free of charge.

Braun's 16-piece band will perform a "history of jazz" type of program, ranging from swing and dixieland jazz up through the 70's, including some jazz rock.

The band is comprised of 4 trumpets, 4 trombones, 5 saxaphones, guitar, base, and drums. Braun plays a variety of instruments at concerts. Many of the band members have previously played with big name bands.

The two-hour program will include such songs as "Let's Dance," "Sweet Caroline," "We've Only Just Begun," and "Moonlight Serenade."

The concert is presented by USD as part of the 1975 Summer Session.
